BRITISH PREMIER AGAN TO CONFER WITH ROOSEVELT

DAVIS WILL SEEK VIEWS OF HITLER

Envoy Will Discuss Disarmament and London Conference Plans With Von Neurath.

By F. G. VOSBURGH.
WASHINGTON, April 5.—(AP)—President Roosevelt tonight laid plans for a history-making conference here with the British prime minister while his special envoy abroad, Norman H. Davis, moved to learn how far the new Hitler regime in Germany will co-operate for world disarmament and economic recovery.

A frank desire for an opportunity to talk with Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald face-to-face here in Washington was expressed by the president in a brief statement issued at the White House, which indicated the talks would deal with economic and disarmament problems.

From London came the word that the Scottish chief of Britain's government looks favorably on the idea and is making provisional arrangements for sailing about the middle of the month.

Davis Goes to Berlin.
How directly the Roosevelt administration is going to approach the new German government was shown by word to the state department tonight that Davis is going to Berlin from Paris Friday, to talk with Adolf Hitler's foreign minister, Baron Kanstantin von Neurath.

"The department of state is informed," said a statement, "that Norman Davis is leaving Paris Friday afternoon, April 7, for a brief visit in Berlin.

"He is making the trip at this time because the German government has agreed to discuss matters relating to disarmament and a date for the economic conference.

"Mr. Davis' visit will be limited to the consideration of these two matters."

Important Mission.
Considerable importance is attached to the coming American diplomatic visit to Germany, where Hitler's rise to dictatorial power at the head of a strong fascist movement has led to fears in some quarters that the nation would seek to re-arm in defiance of the Versailles treaty.

One of Davis' major missions is to save the disarmament conference from collapse, and in this move France and Germany are regarded as the key nations. Davis already has talked at some length with both Premier Daladier and Foreign Minister Paul-Boncour of France.

The co-operation of Germany also is regarded in Washington as vital if complete success is to be achieved in the move for what has been described as economic disarmament—the re-

3-Man Naval Court of Inquiry Named To Study Akron Crash

LIEUTENANT C. H. CALLAWAY
Georgia Officer Lost on Akron.

By HARRY FERGUSON.
WASHINGTON, April 5.—(UP)—Three survivors of the stricken Akron flew here today and found clamor on every side for prompt and vigorous investigation of the greatest air disaster in history.

Running through all these demands was the suggestion that perhaps the time had come to abandon attempts to construct the giant airships which had fared so badly over the years in their struggles with the elements.

In mid-afternoon a navy transport plane landed here, and out stepped Lieutenant Commander Herbert Wiley, executive officer of the Akron; and Moody Erwin and K. E. Deal, enlisted men. Fatigue was heavy on their faces, and all showed signs of the strain through which they had passed.

Nevertheless, they hurried to the navy department with Wiley clutching a large manila envelope, presumably his official report of the disaster.

The secretary of the Navy Swanson stood outside the building to greet them. After a brief chat with him the three men went to the office of Admiral William V. Pratt, chief of naval operations. Shortly afterward Pratt announced a naval court of inquiry, to go into all phases of the Akron tragedy, will sit at Lakehurst, N. J., starting Monday.

Wiley will report more fully to the court.

PRESIDENT ORDERS RETURN OF GOLD BY FIRST OF MAY

Steps Taken for Immediate Mobilization of Jobless; All Other Emergency Measures Progress

WASHINGTON, April 5.—(AP)—The clank of hoarded dollars back into the treasury tills and the tread of marching feet to unemployment camps today were made immediate accessories to the Roosevelt reconstruction program.

On Capitol Hill, meanwhile, the senate advanced upon the intricate and far-reaching farm relief program sent there by the administration and early enactment seemed assured.

The measure, which would endow the secretary of agriculture with potent authority for combating the woes of agriculture, already has passed the house and today reached the senate floor with the approval of the agriculture committee.

The bill is next on the legislative list for debate with a rocky but almost certain road to passage ahead.

The committee, in its formal report, said its hearings resulted in a number of suggestions for changes, but President Roosevelt wanted immediate action.

Currency Inflation Urged.
However, it went to the floor with a currency inflation recommendation, and bore as a section the farm mortgage refinancing proposal of the administration, authorizing issuance of federal land banks of $2,000,000,000 in bonds not guaranteed by the government, to bring about lower interest rates.

While the senate was receiving this report, the house agriculture committee, under Chairman Jones, formally took up the mortgage bill, hearing from administration spokesmen an explanation of the measure, received Monday from the White House.

A senate banking committee at the same time worked on the clerical details of a report approving the mortgage program. It handled this as an individual bill while the agriculture committee was making it a section of the general farm price measure.

The price bill, seeking to increase the farmer's income for his crops to the 1909-1914 level, covers seven commodities: wheat, cotton, corn, rice, tobacco, hogs and dairy products.

It reached the senate just about as it passed the house, save that cattle and sheep were eliminated by the senate committee, and an optional production cost guaranty plan included.

Land Bank Loans.
In approving the mortgage program, the banking committee added authority to land banks to lend to joint stock land banks up to 25 percent of the principal of mortgages held by them and gave the permanent power to designate who should administer the mortgage plan, for which the bill specifies the farm loan commissioner.

Clearing up even more rigidly his command of the nation's gold supply, President Roosevelt late in the day demanded that all persons holding more than $100 in gold or certificates return them to the federal reserve system by May 1 or face

Locomotive Engineers Open Meeting Here; Hear Talmadge Urge Railroad Rate Slash

Leaders in the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers of the southeastern territory are shown above. They are, from left to right, Carl Rudolph, of Cleveland, Ohio, editor and manager of the B. of L. E. Journal; Byron Hill, of Covington, Ky., chairman of the southeastern union meeting; W. J. Alford, of Huntington, W. Va., secretary-treasurer, and H. O. Denny, of Atlanta, chairman of the arrangements committee. Staff photo by George Cornett.

Locomotive engineers and members of ladies' auxiliaries from 11 southeastern states Wednesday began the annual three-day convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, with welcome to Atlanta extended by Governor Eugene Talmadge and Mayor James L. Key.

The delegates Wednesday night were guests at an enjoyable reception and dance at the Shrine Mosque. Today will be devoted to executive business sessions, and the convention will come to a close Friday afternoon with a sight-seeing trip around the city.

Delegates will be entertained at 8:30 o'clock tonight at the Ansley road men by members of the Atlanta

Railway Employees' Association, including the Southern, A. & W. P. L. & N., Georgia, N. C. & St. L., S. A. L., Central of Georgia railway clubs, the Railway Express Agency and the Southern Freight and Allied Associations.

Fair legislation is needed for control of buses and trucks, so that the railroads can be placed again on an equal footing, Governor Talmadge said. "The railroads themselves must help themselves get back where they once were, and the quickest way for them to get there is to cut their rates. Instead of lowering rates, the railroads have been pushing them upward so that a carload of watermelons from south Georgia to Chicago now costs $175 instead of the $80 it once cost," Governor Talmadge said. "A carload of peaches to New York now costs $400 where it once cost $200. That practice has caused thousands of carloads of produce to rot in Georgia fields, doing no good for the producer and making no business for the railroads. What is needed is a scheme of rates that will stimulate business and bring box cars off the siding onto the main line with goods in them. And we've got to get rid of a lot of second and third vice presidents of $75,000 a year. We need more Hills and Harrimans; they would arrange to put loads in the cars."

COURT FIGHT SEEN FOR MANAGEMENT OF CANCER WARD

Key Will Confer With Steiner Trustees Today, But Peaceful Settlement of "Showdown" Edict Is Believed Improbable.

ACTION BY BOARD IS SURPRISE MOVE

Consummation of Order Would Mean Elimination of Trustee Board Now Controlling Clinic.

Complete and immediate control of Steiner cancer clinic by the executive heads of Grady hospital was ordered Wednesday afternoon by the Grady hospital board of trustees, forecasting a court fight with the Steiner board of trustees.

Mayor James L. Key, member of the Grady board, who was detailed to see that provisions of a resolution adopted by the board are put into immediate and complete effect, will confer this morning with Milton E. Liebman and Joseph H. Hirsch, Steiner trustees, in an effort to carry out the board's mandate peacefully and with the least possible hindrance, it was said.

The Grady board's order, adopted by unanimous vote in an executive session in the office of Samuel C. Dobbs Sr., chairman, with all members present, directs that "the superintendent of the hospital, medical director and superintendent of nurses at once take the same full and complete charge of the operation of Steiner ward that they are now exercising over all the other units of the hospital."

Chairman Dobbs had no comment to make on the meeting other than to say that "the matter is in the hands of the mayor." W. Eugene Harrington, vice chairman, who initiated the proposal for Grady to take over Steiner clinic, said that he had no comment to make.

Mayor Key recently was given by Mr. Dobbs a copy of Mr. Harrington's memorandum containing the suggestion that the Steiner board control be eliminated, and it had been expected that the matter would go to city council in the usual course after study of the proposal by the mayor. Wednesday's action of the Grady board came as a surprise, indicating that the Grady board is seeking to force an immediate showdown.

Mr. Liebman Wednesday night declined to comment on the Grady board's action, but, in view of his attitude on the matter, it is considered highly probable that the Steiner trustees will resist in the courts any effort to eliminate the board's control of the cancer ward.

Mr. Hirsch also declined to reveal his reaction to the Grady board's order, but he had stated previously that if steps are taken to eliminate the

SPECULATION RIFE ON BEER SESSION OF SISK KINSMAN

Meeting To Be Called Before May 1 or Not at All. Talmadge Silent.

As the widespread demand for a special payless session of the general assembly to act on the legalization of beer there was a sharply divided opinion among observers as to what Governor Eugene Talmadge would do.

The governor continued his silence throughout the day, giving no indication of his views on the matter. However, it did appear definitely established that the session will be called for a date between now and May 1 or not at all.

Legislative observers pointed out that if a session is held between May 1 and December 31 the governor may have to place before the senate nominations of appointive officers whose terms would expire in 1934.

Dismissal by Adams Held Up; Thornton's Work Satisfactory, Claim.

A temporary order restraining Commissioner of Agriculture G. C. Adams from dismissing J. S. Thornton, father-in-law of Senator J. T. Sisk, of Elberton, as a short-term investigation was issued Wednesday by Judge John B. Hutcheson, of the Stone Mountain circuit.

The order was made returnable April 22.

The petition, which was for a mandamus nisi, alleged that Commissioner Adams had relieved Thornton on April 1 because of Senator Sisk's activities during the recent session of the legislature when he headed a committee which investigated alleged job-selling in the department of agriculture. Senator Sisk's activities during the session were said to have been "entirely satisfactory."

GERMANY MAY BAN FOREIGN SCRIBES

Objection to Chicagoan's Book Basis for Attack on Press Association.

BERLIN, April 5.—(AP)—The Foreign Press Association, representing about 135 correspondents from more than 20 nations, may be dissolved by the German government because the cabinet considers a book written by its president to be offensive.

The conflict centers about "Germany Puts the Clock Back," written by Edgar Mowrer, of the Chicago Daily News. It appeared a month before the appointment of the Hitler government.

The cabinet has decided to boycott the association as long as Mowrer remains its president. He offered to resign, but by an overwhelming vote the association declined to permit him.

The Chicago correspondent explained his position thus: "My standpoint is: responsible foreign newspaper correspondents must by no social or other personal pressure of whatever nature be hindered in their freedom of criticism in so far as they report to their country on the basis of unchallengeable material."

At a general meeting Mowrer asserted that the great majority of his American colleagues agreed the book in nowise transcended the limits of a political writer should observe. This position, he said, was shared by Fred Eric M. Sackett, the retiring American ambassador.

Mr. Sackett suggested to Foreign Minister Von Neurath that the difference be bridged, but Minister of Propaganda Joseph Goebbels informed the association that it would be boycotted as long as Mowrer remained president. After Mowrer had been removed from the association, the government might dissolve the organization.

APPROVAL IS SEEN FOR 5-DAY WEEK

Senate Expected To Pass Bill Limiting Working Hours.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—(AP)—The Black five-day week bill was defended today by Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the democratic leader, in reply to republican criticism as the measure apparently neared a vote in the senate.

Answering an assertion by Senator Reed, republican Pennsylvania, that the bill would "pretty nearly extinguish the last gasp of industry," Robinson said he was unwilling to hear criticism of the measure from those who had done little to improve conditions.

The senate adjourned without a vote, but leaders predicted the bill would be approved tomorrow, modified to limit factory employment to 36 hours a week instead of 30.

The first amendment adopted today was one to exempt newspapers and periodicals from the bill.

Just before the senate met, republicans, in a party conference almost

BRITISH CONSIDER RUSSIAN EMBARGO

Bill Would Serve as a Weapon in Case of Accused Englishmen.

LONDON, April 5.—(AP)—The house of commons tonight gave second reading to the government's bill authorizing executive declaration of an embargo against Russian goods, after turning down a labor motion for rejection, by a vote of 247 to 48. Opposition liberals refrained from voting.

The bill, which would give the government a weapon in the case of six British engineers arrested in Moscow on charges of sabotage and espionage, aroused the laborites' opposition on the ground the crisis might have been averted if British authorities had handled differently the Moscow end of negotiations for the release of the men.

George Lansbury, labor leader, won a partial victory, when he obtained from Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade, a promise the government would give sympathetic consideration to the suggestion that a time limit be inserted in the bill so that it would deal only with the arrests of the engineers and not with the whole question of Anglo-Russian trade.

Mr. Runciman revealed that the government had made a careful search for evidence of sabotage and espionage in Russia and had found no instance in which such a trial resulted in acquittal of the accused.

Labor's amendment to the bill, moved by Sir Stafford Cripps, claimed that revelations in the white paper concerning the arrests, tabled in the house last night, were not adequate reasons why wide powers asked in the

Woman's Flying Fists Rout Husky Burglar

A husky negro burglar who had just looted one home and was loitering in the yard of the house next door Wednesday night was routed by the flying fists of Mrs. H. N. Merrill, of 736 Amsterdam avenue, N. E., according to police reports.

The negro broke in the residence of L. O. Kimberly, of 732 Amsterdam avenue, N. E., in the absence of the family Wednesday night, by cutting through a screen door.

Leaving the Kimberly house, the negro went into the yard of the Merrill home. Mrs. Merrill was alone at the time, and had started to the garage to make sure the car was locked. She encountered the man in the driveway. The negro grabbed at her but she put up such resistance he was routed. When police arrived Mrs. Merrill told them she "would have broken every bone in his body if he had stood up and fought like a man."

Mr. Kimberly was unable to tell what was missing from his home.

BODY FORMS PLAN TO AID BUSINESS

Group Outlines 5-Point Inflation Proposal To Restart Industry.

NEW YORK, April 5.—(AP)—A five-point inflation plan, which its proponents believe would restart industry and give rapidly increasing employment, was outlined tonight by the committee for the nation to rebuild prices and purchasing power.

It is signed by five members of the "directing committee," and also by 100 prominent business leaders, industrialists and economists.

The "five steps," in brief, are:
"1. Recognize that bank deposits constitute the nation's important medium of exchange. Therefore, the reopening of the maximum number of banks must be expedited and deposits unfrozen as rapidly as possible by a very broad and liberal use of the powers granted the administration by recent emergency legislation. In the opinion of the committee, the government would be justified in expanding currency to protect the depositors' banks which have not yet reopened."

"The government should guarantee the deposits of all banks which have been reopened and which have been declared sound."
"2. Continue embargo on gold export and suspension of specie payments before the United States returns to the gold standard, confidence should be held with Great Britain with the aim of making arrangements for the two countries to return to the gold basis simultaneously and on a basis that will give each country the price level it desires."

Remove Restrictions.

"3. Remove restrictions upon foreign exchange dealing which do not involve export of gold. Discontinue the efforts to keep the dollar at its former gold parity. The British pound sterling and other foreign exchanges must advance in the price level in the United States. By pegging the dollar in foreign exchange, we have held down our price level as completely as though we had not suspended gold payments. We must resume the free dealing in sterling and other foreign exchange. If this does not suffice, the United States should sell dollar exchange to depress the price so that foreign countries can acquire it at lower cost to pay their debts to us and to use it in buying goods from American agriculture and industry."

"4. It should be announced forthwith that prior to lifting the embargo on gold at a future date, it will be the policy of the United States to revalue gold. It is the opinion of the committee that in this revaluation, the United States treasury should raise the price of gold from $20.67 per ounce to a new peak of $36.17 per ounce. This is an increase of 75 per cent—an arbitrary temporary level estimated to bring the commodity price level to a 1925 base."

Creation of Board.
"5. A federal nonpartisan board should be created to stabilize the United States general price level of wholesale commodity prices at 100. This is the average of the United States bureau of labor price levels from 1921 to 1930."

The committee says that if this program were adopted it would "have as its object the immediate increase of prices and continuing increase that will gradually carry prices back to where they were in 1925."

In discussing suggestion No. 4, the report said:

"The mere knowledge that such a program of establishing a higher dollar price for gold is planned would start the price-level upward."

"Such basic commodities as cotton, wheat, hides and copper would rise accordingly. Their price would quickly spread to other products."

"Consumers would begin to buy, dealers and wholesalers would buy from manufacturers, and industry would be set in motion."

Same Amount of Gold.
"World commodities would continue to exchange for practically the same amount of gold as previously, but each ounce would represent a larger number of dollars in the United States."

"At this point a new stabilization board would operate to maintain the then existing price-level within a narrow range of fluctuation."

The report said that in February the committee "forecast among other things the impending need for (a) embargo of gold exports, and (b) suspension of specie payments, as a prerequisite to restoration of price levels within the United States, and these steps are now accomplished facts."

The signers are Lessing J. Rosenwald, chairman, Sears, Roebuck & Co.; F. H. Saxton, president, Dairymen's League Co-operative Association; F. H. ELECTRIC PRODUCTION DECREASES IN WEEK

NEW YORK, April 5.—(AP)—Electric power production in the United States last week made the most favorable comparison with 1932 since the week ended February 18.

Edison Electric Institute today reported total output at 1,402,142,000 kilowatt hours against 1,409,655,000 in the previous week, but the percentage decline from 1932 was 5.3 compared with 6.9 in the week ended March 25. The Central Industrial Region was 8.1 per cent under last year compared with 10.9 per cent in the week ended March 25. The decrease on the Atlantic seaboard was 4.6 per cent against 4.3 per cent. New England alone 7.2 per cent against 7.6, and Pacific Coast 5.7 against 4.1.

For the week ended February 18 the decrease was 4.9 per cent.

McDuffie Says South Will Vote For Repeal

WASHINGTON, April 5.—(AP)—A prediction that the southern states "will surprise even the most optimistic of you and join Michigan and Wisconsin in a veritable procession to repeal" was made tonight by Representative McDuffie, democrat, Alabama, before the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform.

McDuffie said it was his opinion that "millions of drys and total abstainers" had been convinced national prohibition was a failure.

"I think it was on the table. As I staggered to my feet I placed my hand on the gun."

She said she and Mix became reconciled for a time afterward.

"I tried it again but it was no use," she said.

FORMER MRS. MIX ADMITS SHOOTING COWBOY HUSBAND

ELECTRIC PRODUCTION DECREASES IN WEEK

NEW YORK, April 5.—(AP)—Electric power production in the United States last week made the most favorable comparison with 1932 since the week ended February 18.

Edison Electric Institute today reported total output at 1,402,142,000 kilowatt hours against 1,409,655,000 in the previous week, but the percentage decline from 1932 was 5.3 compared with 6.9 in the week ended March 25. New England alone 7.2 per cent against 7.6, and Pacific Coast 5.7 against 4.1.

For the week ended February 18 the decrease was 4.9 per cent.

McDuffie Says South Will Vote For Repeal

WASHINGTON, April 5.—(AP)—A prediction that the southern states "will surprise even the most optimistic of you and join Michigan and Wisconsin in a veritable procession to repeal" was made tonight by Representative McDuffie, democrat, Alabama, before the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform.

McDuffie said it was his opinion that "millions of drys and total abstainers" had been convinced national prohibition was a failure.

The actor had testified his erstwhile spouse had shot him during a quarrel over a "gigolo," guest at her home.

Their testimony was in trial of the suit of Mrs. De Olazabal, now wife of the Argentine consul at San Francisco, to collect on promissory notes for $50,000 which Mix declines to pay on grounds that the notes were obtained under duress.

"He beat me and knocked me down and kicked me," Mrs. De Olazabal testified. "Then I grabbed the gun and shot him. I was very badly beaten and was attended by a physician."

"Where was the gun?" the witness was asked.

"I think it was on the table. As I staggered to my feet I placed my hand on the gun."

She said she and Mix became reconciled for a time afterward.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—(AP)—For the first time in his busy days at the White House, President Roosevelt went out tonight to attend the theater.

Billion To Be Saved By Vet Economies

WASHINGTON, April 5.—(AP)—To other huge economies of government envisioned by the Roosevelt administration, Frank T. Hines, veterans' administrator, today added a report that $1,203,000,000 in savings would eventually result from expenditures for hospitals and veterans' care alone.

These savings would result independently from the $450,000,000 which the government expects to save through the recent executive order of President Roosevelt cutting gratuities to the former soldiers, and from savings on adjusted service certificates.

Police Wednesday believed they were on the trail of the assailants of Ervin Owens, 29-year-old Bible literature salesman, who was found fatally stabbed Tuesday morning in an alley at Haynes and Mitchell streets. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the chapel of Awtry and Lowndes. Burial was in the East Lake cemetery.

Though officers refused to reveal names, they said they had evidence which they believed would lead to the capture of the assailants. Owens was found bleeding to death early Tuesday morning. He was on his way to Douglasville Monday night with his mother, Mrs. Henderson Owens, but having a puncture on Cascade road, had started to a service station for aid.

When he did not return, a search was instituted by Mrs. Owens and he was discovered by police in the alley, badly beaten and stabbed and robbed of his valuables.

"So far as the army is concerned, we have too many bureaus already and we could spare six or eight of them with advantage to the national defense and to the joy of the taxpayer."

KANSAS CITY, April 5.—(AP)—Terming the United States army "top-heavy and extravagant," Major General Johnson Hagood expressed the hope Tuesday that President Roosevelt would slash away the red tape and get rid of overlapping bureaus.

The commanding general of the eighth corps area, with headquarters at Fort Omaha, used pungent language in calling for economy in army affairs. He addressed a civilian gathering at the Knave and Fork Club.

"Like every other department of the government it (the army) is top-heavy and extravagant," said the veteran regular army officer. "It needs close trimming to make it fit the pocket book of the man without a job."

"It takes $300,000,000 to run the army under its present organization. We can get a better organization for less."

DUCE BARS CHANGE IN PEACE PROGRAM

ROME, April 5.—(Thursday)—(AP) While the French government was drafting what reportedly is a revised peace project to submit to Premier Mussolini, of Italy, it Duce early today issued an advance notice that the fundamental provisions of his "peace club" plan must remain intact. Premier Mussolini's statement was issued through the grand council of fascism, his highest advisory body, after a late night session.

It declared that his recent suggestions, asking for collaboration by France, Germany and Great Britain for peace, are the only bases on which "peace of equality" can be built.

At the same time, the conviction was expressed that "through the work of clarification already initiated" the plan will find in the leaders of the government "the same comprehension that already has been shown by the people."

The council said it felt sure that the formation of a new political atmosphere will make a fruitful international collaboration also possible in the field of economics.

Signor Mussolini personally summed up the international situation in a speech to the council. Thereafter the council voted his, their thanks for his "work of realistic vision" toward assuring European peace and hastening reconstruction.

Italian premier's plan is expected to arrive here shortly.

Its contents have not been made public, but newspaper reports predict that, while generally agreeing with Signor Mussolini's scheme, it will propose certain alterations for additions which may necessitate further negotiations.

The council statement gave notice that Premier Mussolini will engage in such discussions.

Italian authorities have expressed themselves as being pleased with the attention the French statesmen have accorded the Italian peace idea, but feel some disappointment that the scheme may need some revision.

A guarantee that interests of smaller powers will be protected is said to be one of the French suggestions.

TOWERS MAY GET MOFFETT'S PLACE

WASHINGTON, April 5.—(AP)—Much interest in the naval air service and elsewhere in the navy, centered tonight on who would be designated to succeed Rear Admiral William A. Moffett as chief of the naval bureau of aeronautics.

Moffett went down with the ill-fated Akron Monday night. Considerable weight is expected to be given by Secretary Swanson to a recommendation by Representative Vinson, democrat, Georgia, that Captain John H. Towers, former assistant chief of the bureau, receive the appointment.

Under the law an officer to be eligible must be rated as either a qualified pilot or as a qualified observer.

In the list of rear admirals there are only nine qualified, and two of them would be unlikely to be considered.

Among the rear admirals with the pilot or observer qualification are N. E. Erwin, who retired this year and thus likely would not be selected, and Frank B. Upham, chief of the bureau of navigation—a position higher than that of chief of aeronautics.

The other seven eligible rear admirals are J. M. Reeves, Henry V. Butler, J. J. Raby, Albert W. Marshall, Harry E. Yarnell, Walter E. Gherardi and John Halligan. Admiral Gherardi also might not be able to take the post since an automobile accident injured him to an extent that his assignments have been solely for shore duty.

The names of Rear Admirals Marshall and Halligan were those mentioned frequently among naval personnel.

"Towers for years was Moffett's assistant. He is an able man, and I am going to ask the secretary of the navy to give him the appointment," Vinson, chairman of the house naval committee, said.

"Towers' name is twelfth down the list of eligible captains, and considering eligible rear admirals, he would be twenty-first in rank for the position."

Towers first applied for naval aviation in 1910 and was ordered to Hammondsport, New York, for flight instruction under Glenn Curtiss. He was one of the first three naval officers assigned to aviation, and in August, 1911, qualified as an aviator. In October, 1912, he made a flight of six hours and ten minutes in a Curtiss seaplane, establishing a world record for seaplane endurance and an American record for endurance in any type of plane.

His record is maintained, and considering eligible rear admirals, he would be twenty-first in rank for the position.

Whittemore 'Traveling Home' Pauses Here

senate by Senator King, democrat, New York, who referred to the naval affairs committee. The resolution would grant the special committee such wide powers that, if it so desired, it could recommend that dirigibles be abandoned by the army and navy.

"The utility of the dirigible is open to question," King's resolution reads. "Thorough, impartial and unrestricted investigation is necessary."

On the other side of the capitol, Representative McClintic, democrat, Oklahoma, who refused to ride in the Akron a year ago because he believed it was in a damaged condition, proposed creation of a congressional committee to conduct the investigation.

He called the long roll of dirigibles that have been dashed to disaster—Roma, LC-4, R-38, Shenandoah, Akron—and shouted:

"The citizens of this country are wondering everywhere what congress is going to do. There is a serious doubt as to whether dirigibles can perform efficiently as a branch of the national defense. It includes members of the military and naval affairs committees."

Representative Fish, republican, New York, demanded to know why the report of department of justice agents, who investigated alleged sabotage of the Akron, should not be made public.

The house naval affairs committee, in the meantime, voted unanimously to hold its own investigation. It will include the history of the Akron and the sabotage rumors. The actual inquiry will be turned over by the committee to a sub-committee on aeronautics which has not yet decided whether it will hold hearings here or at Lakehurst, New Jersey.

Resolutions of sympathy for relatives of those who died in the disaster were voted by the committee.

Former Senator Hiram Bingham, president of the American Aeronautical Association, complained to the house military affairs committee today that morale of fliers probably had been affected by failure of the navy department to name an assistant secretary of the navy for aeronautics. He said that when the Shenandoah crashed there was no assistant secretary in charge of aeronautics and consequently morale lapsed. As soon as one was appointed, morale was restored, he declared.

BEACH COMMISSION, N. J., April 5.—(AP)—Wreckage which coast guardsmen believe was part of the airship Akron was picked up today by coast guard vessels about 25 miles east of Beach Haven. Chief Boatswain's Mate Elwood Butler, commander of Bond's station, said tonight.

He said the patrol boat 2011 of Bond's station and a coast guard power lifeboat from Great Egg Harbor station picked up several pieces of brass and portions of fabric while searching for the Akron.

A report from Atlantic City, N. J., said that quantities of wreckage, apparently from the Akron, were sighted 28 miles east of Absecon Light today by Chief Boatswain's Mate Robert Maxwell, of the Longport coast guard station.

Arriving in Atlantic City tonight after an all-day search in a lifeboat, Maxwell said he discovered a dozen drifting objects, including a tin can of emergency rations, a fragment of a door and bits of airship fabric.

He said he turned the collection over to the coast guard destroyer CG-2, which was to convey it to the cruiser Portland, stationed in the vicinity of the disaster.

2 Killed, 16 Overcome By Gas at Steel Mill PITTSBURGH, April 5.—(AP)—Fumes escaping from a "bleeder" valve asphyxiated two men and overcame 16 others at the Carnegie Steel Company's plant in suburban Rankin tonight. Hospital attendants reported that several of those overcome are in a critical condition.

Company officials said the leaking valve was in an outdoor tank, located about 20 yards above the ground. Noting the escaping gas, Nicholas Majumbe ran up a flight of stairs and attempted to stem the flow, but, apparently breathless upon reaching the elevated platform, fell unconscious.

Paul Stricko went to his rescue and collapsed before he could offer assistance. Both died in the plant's emergency hospital.

The 16 others dashed up the narrow stairs and one by one were overcome, falling to the platform before they could close the valve or give first aid to those who went before them.

Other employees, wearing gas masks, finally closed the valve and carried their fellow employees to the first aid station, from which they were later removed to Pittsburgh hospitals.

Steiner, board the matter would be placed in the hands of the board's attorneys, which was construed to indicate that court fight will follow any definite action looking to abrogation of the Steiner-city contract.

John B. Franklin is superintendent of Grady hospital. Dr. Joseph H. Hines is medical director, and Miss Annie Bess Feebeck is superintendent of nurses. Steiner clinic is operated under the direction of Dr. R. H. Fike, and the Steiner trustees nominate all staff members.

Steiner clinic was built in 1922 at a cost of $100,000 for construction and $100,000 for equipment. It was erected from a bequest left by Albert Steiner and accepted by the city. Part of the operating cost is borne by the income from the residue of the $500,000 bequest.

Mayor Key said that he is withholding action on a resolution of council seeking a new contract under which Steiner trustees would have full control of the institution. The mayor indicated that he will veto a council resolution calling for an investigation of Steiner clinic.

NORTH CAROLINA COURT PASSES ON REPEAL BILLS RALEIGH, N. C., April 5.—(AP)—The state supreme court, in an informal opinion today, held a proposal for a special election late this year to elect delegates to a convention for action upon the prohibition repeal amendment would be unconstitutional.

At the same time the court expressed the unanimous opinion that a pending bill proposing that the question of a convention be submitted to the voters in the general election of 1934 was constitutional.

Georgia Hall Leaders Plan Intensive Atlanta Campaign

Plans for an appeal to every Atlanta citizen for contributions to the $100,000 Georgia Hall fund will HEADACHE—Why wait for slow-dissolving tablets to act?

Nothing gives such quick relief from headache, neuralgia, rheumatic or periodic pains as Capudine because it is liquid and its ingredients are already dissolved. Your system can absorb them at once. Why wait for a slow remedy to dissolve? Capudine's action is immediate, delightful.

crystallize at a meeting of the local committee at 1 o'clock at the Capital City Club today, according to Cator Woolford, vice chairman of the state committee and chairman of the Atlanta group. The committee will be the guests of Mr. Woolford at a luncheon and make reports on progress in the drive.

Mr. Woolford said representatives of every line of business and industry in the city would be appointed to act as captains of augmenting committees, the leaders to select their co-workers and cover their particular lines.

Though most of the funds collected by county chairmen were being turned over to Cason J. Callaway, state chairman, several donations outside Atlanta were received Wednesday. James Newsom, chairman for Rockdale county, sent in $228, and another check for $150 came from J. M.

Mays, chairman for Ben Hill county. James W. Woodruff, chairman of Muscogee county, said several organizations in Columbus were co-operating with his committee. The helping forces included civic, social and church and labor organizations.

Frank Lanier, chairman of the Sumter county committee, reported a fund of nearly $200 already contributed and that residents of Americus and other cities were responding generously. The highest sum given, he reported, was $10 and the lowest $1. The radio appeals for contributions which were inaugurated Tuesday night, continued Wednesday night with city leaders speaking over both WGST and WSB in interest of the campaign.

All Atlanta donors were requested to send contributions to campaign headquarters at 85 Poplar street, while those outside the city were asked to make returns direct to local and county chairmen.

Named on Board.
SPRING STATION, Ky., April 5.—(AP)—Ogden L. Mills, former secretary of the treasury, was elected to the board of directors of the Southern Pacific Company at the annual stockholders' meeting, held here today. Malcolm P. Alrich was also elected to the board.

HEAD OF SHENANDOAH EXPECTED TO REMAIN

NEW YORK, April 5.—(AP)—Julius H. Barnes and associates expect to continue in control of the Shenandoah Life Insurance Company, despite the sale today of an equity in a contract involving 20,000 shares of the concern's stock.

The sale consummated in the public auction rooms of Adrian H. Muller & Son, was puzzling to local insurance circles, because no actual stock changed hands.

Virginia interests, dominant in the affairs of the Shenandoah Holding Company of Roanoke, Va., and original owners of the life insurance company, bid in the equity for $134,000. Comment on the situation was refused at the offices of Barnes and Frank Cohen, executive vice president of his various interests.

Crackers Beaten by Detroit, 7-4; Meet Columbus This Afternoon

BREAK of the DAY
By Ralph McGill

From newsboy to major league fame—
From batboy to major league catcher—
These Horatio Alger plots are going around with the Detroit ball club, which appeared here yesterday in beating our Crackers, in the persons of Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe and Frank Rieber.

Schoolboy Rowe had never seen a professional baseball club until last May. He was signed in a small town fire hall in the city of El Dorado, Ark. Eddie Goosetree, the expert Detroit scout, saw him play with the town nine and signed him while admiring firemen looked on.

He was sent to Beaumont last May. Beaumont was going to farm him out but he won his first four games. They kept him.

Detroit was going to send him back to Beaumont this year but he beat the Giants twice and hit like a demon.

In his first look at major league pitching—two games with the Giants—he got two home runs, two singles and struck out twice.

He is 6 feet 4 1/2 inches tall. He is, say the ball players on the Detroit club, the nearest thing to another Babe Ruth they have ever seen. In batting practice before the Wednesday game at Ponce de Leon park he knocked three balls high up in the republican stands.

He is pretty sure to stick with Detroit—just 21 years old and in his second year of professional baseball.

Frank Rieber, who caught Rowe at Beaumont, was the batboy around the Detroit park for years. He wanted to be an infielder but he would try anything just to get to handle a ball. He became a catcher and was good enough to stay with Beaumont, the Texas league pennant winners last season.

And now he is going up with Rowe—a couple of kids—both in the majors.

Which is just another reason why baseball is a great game—catching the imagination more than any other game.

THE IVORY SCOUTS.
Discovery of Schoolboy Rowe indicates just how the good scouts never miss a bet.

They comb the section known as "the bushes" in search of "baseball ivory" with a thoroughness that is astounding. In these days of specialization, when most college players are tied up before they finish their careers, and when every sandlot player is tagged, the scout's work is more difficult than ever.

Goosetree, who discovered Rowe and other Detroit prizes, makes a specialty of visiting small towns in Arkansas and Mississippi. He drops in without announcing his presence. He watches terrible ball games. He sleeps in awful hotels. He eats miserable food. But now and then he comes up out of the bushes with a choice bit of ivory.

Rowe was "discovered" when he was about 16 years old. But Goosetree did not mention the kid to anyone. He saw him play a couple of summers and then, when he was 19, signed him to the papers.

If Rowe should become the star the players think he will, Goosetree's salary will be paid over and over again by this one discovery.

BUCKY HARRIS SYMPATHIZES.
Bucky Harris, the great little manager of the Detroit club, was bending an attentive ear to a moan by Your Uncle Wilbert Robinson yesterday afternoon.

"Bucky, this league requires a college degree to do business," said Your Uncle Wilbert. "It's got this 'B' rule thing in it. If an infielder or an outfielder has been to bat in an 'A' league or better 160 times he is an 'A' man. A catcher is in 140 times at bat and a pitcher is rubbed off the 'B' lists after he has pitched 90 innings."

"Charley Moore and I are new to this league and we have to do so much arithmetic we are sitting up nights letting Colonel Tillinghast L'Honmedieu Huston, the engineer, teach us arithmetic. The Colonel is a shark with the figures and so we expect to come out all right. But it's pretty tough to have to learn arithmetic."

Bucky Harris thinks the Southern association rookie rule is too drastic.

"Still," he said, "the money is made off the rookies."

The Southern association player limit of 16 also caused the Detroit manager to lift incredulous eyebrows.

"What happens if someone gets hurt?" he wanted to know.

It was explained that the Southern league has a system of violating the rules. We are great on laws and rules in Dixie-land even though we do not keep them. The Southern association teams keep a player or so sitting around, working out each day before the games. He is paid just like the others. And when a player is injured he is suspended for 10 days and the stooge put in his place. It is usually more expensive than having an extra man on the team, but it does not violate the rules which the great minds of the league have made.

THE "FOOTBALL" ARMS.

Harris, watching Freddie Sington throw, advanced the idea that the big fellow's throwing arm is a bit muscle-bound from football.

"I have never seen a football player yet who wasn't muscle-bound a bit in his arms, especially a lineman. They are tense so much of the time, usually without realizing it, that their muscles become tight. And then, too, the linemen take a pounding about the shoulders."

Harris found Gerald Walker, his outfielder, to be a bit muscle-bound from football at Mississippi.

"They usually get over it," he said. "The arms come around unless they are too badly bound."

The Detroit manager thought Sington a great looking prospect and liked the power shown at bat even though the Detroit pitchers did hold him hitless during the afternoon.

VANDERBILT'S FIRST COACH.

Sir Henry Thornton, the only American football coach to become an English knight, died a few days ago in Canada.

Thornton was the first employed football coach which Vanderbilt University had, taking the job in 1894 after graduating from Pennsylvania. He later became head of Great Eastern railway in England, reorganized the Canadian roads and rendered such valiant service during the war that he was given distinguished service medals by several nations and was knighted by England.

Thornton's 1894 Vanderbilt team upset the dope of that season with a 10-to-0 victory over Sewanee. Thornton was unique in football annals.

JOHN DOBBS YEARS.

Johnny Dobbs years mightily to have Red Barron with him at Charlotte, where the red head is a popular figure. Dobbs would have an invaluable asset in Barron. Charlotte would revive.

BEN CHAPMAN, LAZZERI BLAST HOMERS TO WIN

Yanks Beat Colonels 9 to 0 in Louisville Slugfest.

LOUISVILLE, April 5.—(AP)—Ben Chapman hit two successive home runs, Tony Lazzeri poked out a homer and triple and George Pipgras and Jimmy Doherty pitched five-hit ball as the New York Yankees blanked the Louisville Colonels, of the American association, 9 to 0, today.

Chapman, hitting his home runs in the third and fourth innings, sent five runs across the plate. Both blows were within the playing field. Lazzeri's circuit blow in the fourth cleared the high left-field fence.

Babe Ruth was suffering with a heavy cold and the weather was bad he played only one inning, giving way to Sammy Byrd.

At Louisville:
New York (A.).....100 400 100-2-34 0
Louisville (A.).....000 000 000-0 0 0
Pipgras, Doherty and W. Dickey, S. Dickey, McKinn, Marcum and Thompson, Erickson.

LOOKOUTS BEATEN.
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 5.—(AP)—Fred Fitzsimmons and Glen Spencer pitched shutout ball after the first inning as the New York Giants, aided by three errors, defeated Chattanooga, of the Southern association, 6 to 2 today.

PHILADELPHIA. April 5.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics hopped into a 2-to-1 lead in the city series today by defeating the Phillies, 9 to 3. Tony Freitas pitched six innings for the A's and did not allow a hit. One Phil got on base on a pass. Rube Walberg, who succeeded him, allowed one single in the seventh and two hits in the ninth when the Phillies scored three runs.

CARDS WIN, 17-5.
WEST PLAINS, Mo., April 5.—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals played through a drizzle of rain here this afternoon to punish the local semipro, 17 to 5. The Cards garnered 23 hits off three West Plains pitchers. Frisch got five singles.

FIRST FOR SMOKIES.
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., April 5.—(AP)—The Knoxville Smokies, of the Southern association, who hadn't won an exhibition game this spring, defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 8 to 6, today.

The Smokies' pitcher, Keith Frazier, rookie pitcher of the National league team, for all their runs in the first three innings.

RED SOX WIN.
NEWARK, N. J., April 5.—(AP)—The Boston Red Sox today put on an impressive closing drive to edge out the Newark Bears, International league champions, by a 7-6 score in a free-hitting game.

SOLONS VICTORS.
WASHINGTON, April 5.—(AP)—Washington hit Seibold, Boston starting pitcher, hard today and added runs because of Brown's wildness to gain an easy 7-to-3 victory in an exhibition with the National league team.

Schulte, Washington outfielder, tripled in the fourth with two on.

BAIDEN MEETS WILSON TONIGHT

Promoter Cleve Roby will offer his first 1933 fight card tonight at the city auditorium and promises those present plenty of action.

The main bout will bring together Billy Walden and Kid Baiden, two well-known boys, for a 10-round battle. It will be Baiden's first fight at the auditorium and he is hoping to make a hit. He holds a decision over Dynamite Dunn.

Battling Bozo (not the Birmingham Bozo) will meet Battling Sivity in the semi-main event and their past performances they should do some real battling.

Two other good bouts and a battle royal will open the show. "Depression prices" will be the order.

Promoter Roby, who always strives to please his customers, believes he will give them a real evening of action tonight. He is especially anxious to go over big, as he is planning a series of weekly shows. A large turnout is expected.

Bob Smith Works With Cracker Club

Bob Smith, Atlanta boy who pitches for the Cincinnati Reds, worked out with the Crackers yesterday at Ponce de Leon park. Smith was left here by the Redlegs Monday in order to work out and straighten up a few business matters here.

Bob and his family will leave the latter part of the week to join the Reds in Cincinnati. He pitched six innings against Atlanta Monday for Cincinnati.

ATLANTA SHOW TO SEE CHAMPS

Atlanta's annual Kennel Club show will open at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning in the spacious Longwood building, 447 West Peachtree street, with several hundred dogs entered from all sections of the United States.

It is to see winners from the New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis, and other cities, and winners from shows in the west and east.

Other Georgia cities have entered more dogs than usual in the show. Mrs. John Clark Rowland, of Savannah, will show here two Georgian-bred bitches, Wirecrest Possum and Cinderella of Wirehope. Mrs. Rowland has just returned from Pinckney where she exhibited at the annual show held by the Pinckney Kennel Club and where both her dogs made valuable records.

Cinderella of Wirehope, a seven-month-old puppy, won three principal awards, best bitch and best bred and second best of any breed, either sex, of any age in the entire show. Wirecrest Possum, a yearling, was the best American-bred terrier in the best class.

Mrs. Rowland prominent in Junior League and other Savannah social activities, is one of the youngest Georgia breeders of wire-haired fox terriers and prior to her showing of pedigreed dogs she was well known throughout the state and south as an expert of saddle horses.

Augusta, Macon and other cities are to have entries. The show has splendid seating facilities about the show ring and the hearing of dogs affords ample space for visitors to see the pedigreed competitors.

Campbell won the 100 yard backstroke and the 50-yard free style swims for Emory and Randolph won Emory's other first place in winning the 100-yard free style.

Boys' High will swim against the Tech Freshmen at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon at the M. C. A. pool in another practice meet.

The summaries:

Crackers Blast Record of Knott

Jack Knott, the big pitcher from Milwaukee, now with the St. Louis Browns, ran up a string of 18 scoreless innings in exhibition games only to have his record marred by two unearned runs.

The ill luck struck him here Tuesday in the Browns' game against the Crackers, who also touched Knott for the first earned run he had allowed in 20 innings of exhibition games.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 5.—(AP)—"Uncle Charlie" Moran, coach at Centre College in the days of the "wonder team," was recommended for appointment as head football coach at the University of Louisville by the athletic council tonight.

Tragedy Sent Ferrells Back Into Baseball

Death of Kid Brother Caused Wes and Rick To Sign Despite Reductions.

By Jimmy Jones.

Willis Johnson, ex-newspaperman and now traveling secretary for the St. Louis Browns, Tuesday was telling a new and intimate story of the famous Ferrell baseball family of Guilford College, North Carolina, of which Wesley, the star Cleveland pitcher, and Rick, almost equally as prominent as the catcher for the Browns, are probably the best-known members.

It had to do with the inside reason why both Ferrells, listed among our most prominent holdouts this spring, made a sudden decision at one and the same time to cease holding out and report to their respective ball clubs.

"There was lots of conjecturing among the baseball writers as to this," said Johnson, who was sitting in the press coop filling in for one of the St. Louis scribes who did not make the trip. "But I'll tell you that it wasn't the bank situation or any economic reason that caused them to report."

"There were seven boys in the Ferrell family and five of them, as you probably know, are professional players. George, the outfielder, is in this league and he is doing their part well. There was another besides Wes and Rick and these two boys, who was an outfielder.

"While these five brothers were away playing ball in the summer, there was still another brother—the pet—who stayed home with his mother and read the papers to see what they were doing. When they came home in the winter they made a lot over this kid and taught him all they knew about the game. They organized a basketball team of Ferrell brothers and made him a member. They cleaned up with everything around Greensboro, N. C.

"This kid brother of the Ferrells was around 17 years old and a pitcher on the Guilford High school team. He looked forward to the time when there would be six of them—just three short of a nine—playing professional ball.

"Back several weeks ago, when Wes and Rick were holding out for more money, a great family tragedy came into their lives. The kid brother they loved so much was accidentally shot and killed by a gun he had borrowed. The boy was so full of life and so young and hopeful, that the shock of it nearly killed the older brothers. They just couldn't stand it around the house after that. One day, without saying a word to anyone, the brother battery—Wesley, the pitcher, and Rick, the catcher—packed their suitcases and left Guilford. The next thing the papers knew, both of them had signed—Wes with the Indians and Rick with the Browns.

COULD'NT SLEEP.
"I never thought much of the coincidence until one night down in Florida. I met Rick coming out of the hotel about 12 o'clock at night; he was muttering something to himself."

ATLANTA TEAM LEAVES TODAY FOR PIN MEET

Bowls in National Duckpin Congress at Hartford Saturday.

The all-star Atlanta team that will attempt to bring national recognition to the Gate City at the National Duckpin Bowling Congress takes its departure at 12:10 p. m. today via the Southern railway, for Hartford, Connecticut.

Many local bowling fans are expected to be present at the Terminal station to bid the boys "bon voyage" and wish them luck when they compete against the ranking bowlers of the country in the leading duckpin meet of the season.

Walter Lawson, Paul Etheridge Jr., John S. Blick (captain), Dewey P. Bowen and George W. McKay compose the aggregation that will wear the Atlanta colors, and they will bowl on the pinch in order named.

Howard "Strike" Parker will make the trip and bowl in the singles and doubles. In the doubles, Walter Lawson and McKay, Dewey Bowen and John Blick and Paul Etheridge and Howard Parker are slated to bowl in the order named.

The team will carry the highest average that any Atlanta team has ever had in a national tournament, going well over 570. If the breaks are with the boys, they will stick in the running.

According to schedule, they should arrive at Hartford at 5 o'clock Friday evening and go to the Morgan alleys and bowl a few practice games, and then retire early. Team play, doubles and singles are all scheduled for Saturday, the final day of the tournament, which has extended over three full weeks.

NEW MAT RULES ARE MADE HERE

Atlanta wrestling matches have some new rules to adhere to following the meeting of the boxing and wrestling commission Wednesday afternoon with Chairman John A. White presiding.

In the future wrestlers may not stick the head of an opponent between the crossed ring ropes. This trick, favored by Milo Steinborn and others, was known as the "hugman's hug" and was ruled that it was not a wrestling hold and banned it.

Deliberate throwing of an opponent out of the ring is to be a foul in the future.

Use of the knee in striking a blow is also ruled out.

Jumping on an opponent after he has been ruled down is also to be a foul in the future.

The commission ruled that for violation of any of these rules after a warning the offender would be fined $5. For a third violation his purse will be held up.

Matchmaker Henry Weber was present and aided in presenting the rules. He endorsed them all.

There has been some rough stuff on the part of three or four performers in recent matches and Matchmaker Weber wanted to have this abolished so as to give his patrons better wrestling.

Key Declares Half Holiday April 13

Mayor James L. Key has issued a proclamation, decreeing a half holiday for Atlanta on April 13, when the Crackers open their home season with the Knoxville Smokies. The Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring the game, will formally begin a drive for a 20,000 crowd at their luncheon today.

Mayor Key's proclamation in full follows: "Whereas, the city of Atlanta, Georgia, is the site of the annual baseball season which will be opened on April 13 at 3 o'clock."

The city and the heads of the departments of the city are requested to grant leaves of absence to such of their employees as desire and will attend the baseball game, provided, of course, it does not interfere with the public service.

The people of Atlanta, especially employees, are requested to grant a similar holiday to their own employees. It is the desire of those promoting this opening day occasion that it shall be a notable day in the annals of baseball history in our city. We as a people love baseball. It is a sport that is clean and appeals very strongly to the spirit of our people. We wish and expect the baseball management to make us a team this year that will be a credit to the city and occupy the dignity and the standing which our people desire.

We have a new manager and a new crop of officials in charge of the baseball team for more than a month and they have already selected a team that gives promise of pennant proportions. Here is a great group of bright, enterprising, energetic young men who deserve the support of this community, and it will hearten them very much if the people will rally to their support.

Respectfully submitted, JAMES L. KEY, Mayor.

The annual baseball luncheon in honor of the officials, directors and players of the Atlanta Baseball Company will be given by the Junior Chamber at 12:05 today in the civic room of the Ansley hotel. O. B. Keel, sports writer, will be the principal speaker.

Chisox and Pirate Officials Sign Bond, Retrieve Equipment

AMARILLO, Texas, April 5.—(AP)—Officials of the Chicago White Sox and the Pittsburgh Pirates tonight signed a replevin bond to regain possession of their equipment, attached after the filing of a damage suit for failure to play an exhibition game here today, and their train left for Tulsa at 9:30 p. m., 30 minutes behind schedule.

The suit for $1,300 was filed by Jerry Malin, sports editor of the Amarillo News and Globe, who sponsored the game here. He alleged "failure to fulfill contract without cause" after the club managers had refused to play in the face of a cold wind.

Fans thronged the city at the time the game was cancelled.

BUCK MCKEE HITS TRIPLE, 2 SINGLES FOR BAT HONORS

Bob Hasty Goes Nine Innings Today for First Time.

By Jimmy Jones.

The Crackers made nine base hits off Vic Sorrell and Schoolboy Rowe, Detroit's two pitchers, yesterday, but Freddy Sington, their big berth, again remained silent and the Tigers, by combining young Max Butcher, who has been the team's main punch, couldn't get a hit to save his skin, while Buck McKee, who has been doing a very quiet job of playing center field blossomed out with two singles off Sorrell and a triple off Rowe.

Clarence W. Blethen, the oldest member of the Crackers' staff in the matter of seniority, relieved young Butcher in the fifth and set the Tigers down with only five hits and one run for the rest of the route.

CAN'T GET STARTED.
If the Crackers could ever start firing on all cylinders, they would undoubtedly make trouble for any brand of pitching, including the big league brand. But it appears that when some of the boys are at their best with the stick, the others are having an off day. Yesterday, Fred Sington, who has been the team's main punch, couldn't get a hit to save his skin, while Buck McKee, who has been doing a very quiet job of playing center field blossomed out with two singles off Sorrell and a triple off Rowe.

Silent Pete Susko, another consistent hitter in the spring games, also went hitless. Joe Bonowitz, who has been coming through nobly in the pinch, played a triple game in right and got but one hit, a scratch off Sorrell's glove in the fifth.

It is a known fact, however, that these boys can hit. What was encouraging was that Billy Riehl, narrowly missed converting his grounder into a double play. Sington hit a hopper down the first base line which Davis fielded and tossed to Rowe. But the Schoolboy got his legs tangled up and failed to touch the bag. Blithen scoring and Sington going safe. The next time, when the Schoolboy made the play perfectly, however, when he and Davis collaborated to retire Pete Susko.

Duck McKee caught one of Rowe's fast ones in the nose in the eighth and rapped a two-run homer off Pete Fox's head, in center. He scored when Chatham hit a fly to Fox.

The Tigers looked like a good ball club, especially the younger players. They got 14 hits—nine in the first half and ran the bases well. Manager Harris sent Joyner White in as relief for Johnny Stone, in right, in the fifth and he got a two-bagger to left his only time at bat. Hasty, who relieved Hayworth behind the plate and hit a triple against the left-field bleachers in the eighth. Rowe, Rieber and Pete Fox, who played the full game, all played against the Crackers on the Beaumont team, which won the Texas pennant last year.

They came up to Detroit, along with their manager, Del Baker. Whitlow Wyatt, Cedarhurst, Mo., was the crack of the bat yesterday, disappointing a delegation from his home town which came up to see his play. Wyatt, who has been with Detroit two years, is expected to do a comeback by Harris this year.

The Crackers play some opposition more of their own class today when they meet Columbus, of the American association, at the park, after the week's rest. Manager Moore announced he would work Bob Hasty, the Marietta man, in the entire ninth inning. He will be the first Cracker to go the route.

REPAID GAINS FAVOR; 'RIGHT MONEY' ON HIM

Odds on Quincy Entry Shorten as Large Bets Are Placed.

By Thomas H. Noone,
United Press Racing Editor.

NEW YORK, April 5.—(UP)—Repaid, a handsome chestnut son of Kai-Sang and Granny that the Quincy stable of James F. Johnson picked up for $1,200 as a yearling at the dispersal sale of the Rancocas stable, looms prominently on the horizon for the fifty-ninth running of the Kentucky Derby. His odds in the winter books were shortened today from 20 to 1 to 15 to 1 as the result of several large wagers being placed on him.

Although Repaid won only three of his 11 races as a juvenile in 1932, he also finished second on one occasion and was twice third to earn a total of $13,515—More than 10 times his purchase price.

Improving with every start, this sturdy colt swept the junior championship stakes at Aqueduct in such impressive style that he was sent to the post favorite for the rich Pimlico Futurity in November.

Badly cut while at the post for the Futurity, Repaid ran a game race to finish third, beaten only by a length and a half for all the money. Pete Walls, his jockey, refused to punish a game but distressed colt during the running, or the result of the Futurity might have been a different story.

After his good effort in the Maryland classic, Repaid was put up for the winter, and his injuries healed rapidly and completely. Under the careful care of Trainer Eddie Phelan the colt has taken over 200 pounds over the winter and is as fit as hands can make him at present. Phelan is high on hopes for his charge and, barring mishap, is confident Repaid will give a good account of himself on Derby Day regardless of the condition of the Churchill Downs oval.

The history of Repaid is an interesting one. Holding a grudge against the master of Rancocas for a previous unsatisfactory purchase, Johnson was not long in realizing that he had struck a rare bargain in getting this yearling for so trivial a sum as $1,200. Figuring accounts squared with Sinclair, he chose the name Repaid for his racer.

Petrels Play Friday; Jackets Meet Auburn

Stribling Nominated by Anderson Selects Ray Dodd To Pitch for Tech Nine.

By Jack Troy.

Coach Robert Lee Dodd, of Tech, isn't to be credited for this statement, but it looks like he will send out the best baseball team that has represented the institution in several years Friday and Saturday when Auburn comes to town to open the city's collegiate diamond program at the Rose Bowl. Friday's game starts at 4 o'clock.

Coach Dodd isn't saying much about the prospect at Tech. He has been working quietly for several weeks getting a team together for the season's schedule. And on the face of things, his efforts are going to bring dividends.

Sam Stribling, a right-handed pitcher, has been chosen to open the Auburn series Friday. Pug Boyd, former Tech High star, will catch.

THE INFELD. Hoot Gibson, another former Smithie athlete, has won the first-base position, with Hardin at second and Captain Bill Hogged at third. The shortstop post is still unsettled, Martin and Gross waging a close battle for starting honors.

In the outfield Johnny Ferguson will play left, with Tommy Spradling in center and either Jim Poole or Shorty Roberts in right.

Saturday's opening pitcher will be selected from among Sheriff Crowley, Carpenter and Cannonball Baker.

The Tech lineup as it stands is calculated to combine strong pitching, a hefty offensive punch and a hardy defense.

JIMMIE HITCHCOCK. Coach Sam McAllister includes in his promising Auburn nine Jimmy Hitchcock, a brilliant shortstop, who made the all-American football team last fall.

Hitchcock made the all-Dixie league baseball team last spring, batting .375 pace and fielding sensationally. He is scheduled to go with the Yankees when he finishes school.

McAllister's infield includes Sam Mason, all-Dixie league outfielder, at first base; Warren McMahon, Auburn junior playing college baseball for the first time, at second; Hitchcock at short, and Tommie Kimbrell, brother of Casey Kimbrell, at third.

Tommie Kimbrell also plays the saxophone. Elmer Salter, Auburn's excellent public relations man, reports, so he ought to be good on the hot corner.

Robby May Get Tiger Moundsman

Manager Bucky Harris yesterday informed Wilbert Robinson, president of the Crackers, to get in touch with him after May 15, cutting down time in the majors, regarding a pitcher for his Atlanta ball club.

But Robby isn't depending much on the Crackers, since they have two farms of their own that will get first call on players—Toronto and Beaumont.

"We'll get along with what we have for the first month of the season more than likely," then if the youngsters don't come through for us, I think I know where we can get some pitchers," Robby stated.

Anderson Selects Ray Dodd To Pitch for Tech Nine.

By Jack Troy.

Atlanta baseball fans will have their first look at Coach Frank Anderson's colorful and smooth-working Oglethorpe nine of 1933 Friday and Saturday in the series with the Crackers at Ponce de Leon.

The Petrels played their first regular exhibition game against the St. Louis Cardinals last Friday at Dubuque. The Cards won, 4 to 0, in an excellent game.

Gabby Street's National leagues were given eight hits, seven by Lefty Egan, who started and pitched four innings, and only one by Ray Walker, finishing the game.

WALKER IN FORM. Walker set down all the Cardinal heavy hitters, including the ailing Rogers Hornsby, who came in as a pinch-hitter for Derringer, with the exception of Joe Medwick, promising young outfielder. Medwick got a clean single to left.

On the Petrels' offensive side of it, Sam Baker, outfielder, hit two singles; Eddie Anderson and Truman Higgins got one each.

Gabby Street used his best available lineup against the Petrels. Exhibition records show that the Cards have been virtually smothered all other opposition of the college, semipro and independent variety.

Coach Anderson said yesterday he would start Walker against the Cardinals in the Petrels' first game.

The infield will include: Parker Bryant, first base; Munford Whitely, second base; Chick Martin, shortstop, and Buster Fisher, third base. Martin, brother of Amos Martin, a former Cracker, was the fielding sensation of the game.

COLORFUL PLAYER. He is a colorful shortstop, smaller than the average player, but very dynamic. He covers his position well and has a strong and accurate throwing arm. A left-handed batter, he hits hard.

The Petrel outfield will embrace Reed Craven in left, Sam Baker in center and Eddie Anderson, son of Coach Frank Anderson, in right. Craven replaces Belton Clark, who started against the Cards.

Lefty Dixon, who is a classy south-paw pitcher when he is right, will pitch against Atlanta Saturday. Copeland, a tall right-hander, will be in reserve.

The Petrels are in line to realize some much-needed funds in the two-game series. Coach Anderson has been carrying on in the face of trying times, traveling with the nine in cars and sleeping in the college dorms. The club deserves a helping hand.

But that is no excuse for attending the games. The Petrels have one of the best college nines in the south. Said Gabby Street to his players before the game: "You guys will have to out there and hustle to beat this team. Coach Frank Anderson's ball club always fight. There is a lot of class about them, too." The statement was borne out.

Commercial Meets Purple Ring Stars

Commercial and Boys' High boxers will meet tonight at the Henry Grady auditorium at 7:30, in what will be the first meet for Commercial and the second for Boys' High. Boys' High boxers have been training in earnest since their first meet, which resulted in a decisive defeat for them.

They are certain of making a better showing against Commercial tonight than they did against Tech High. This will mark the first time that Commercial has taken up the mitt-slinging sport.

Polo Series Opens At Ft. McPherson

Opening of the annual polo series between Fort McPherson and the Governor's Horse Guard will take place at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Fort McPherson.

Members of the Horse Guard team are Gerald Graham, P. D. Christian, W. William and Wesley Moore. Joe Clark will serve as a substitute.

Fort McPherson's lineup will consist of Wing, Fox, Schubert and McNair.

Stribling Injures Knees, Fight Off

LONDON, April 5.—(AP)—W. L. (Young) Stribling, 21-year-old weight boxer, today suffered injuries to his knees in training which forced cancellation of his scheduled fight tomorrow night with Don McCormick, South African boxer.

Doctors said Stribling had injured a ligament and would not be able to enter the ring for at least three weeks. Stribling said it was the first time he ever had to postpone a bout because of injury. He defeated McCormick in South Africa last December.

TRAGEDY CHANGES FERRELLS' PLANS

and did not notice me at all; I heard him say 'I can't sleep a wink since that kid died.' I knew then what the matter with him. It's still on his mind but he's snapping out of it just a little and catching every day."

The Ferrell brothers have been good businessmen as well as good ball players. Wes demanded and received good money to sign with Cleveland. Rick got $35,000, his first year with the Browns. The club gave him $25,000 to sign a contract and $10,000 salary after Judge Landis ruled him a free agent because several clubs had tried to cover him up. Rick and Wes both got salary cuts this year and decided to hold out. It was the tragedy at home that caused them to forget the commercial side of the game and to try and find themselves once more in the happy, every-day atmosphere of the baseball field.

Avondale To Offer Mixed Card Friday

A double-header attraction will feature the weekly wrestling and boxing card Friday night in the Avondale arena. Bill Cruselle, of Birmingham, and Wayne Coleman, of Roswell, and Gene Fox faces Wesley Brownlee in the double bill. Both matches are scheduled for the best two out of three, with a one-hour limit.

In the boxing feature Leon Koboff, of West End, meets Battling Bozo, in an eight rounder.

George Lallierstedt meets Lloyd Brown in a preliminary wrestling match in the best two out of three falls, with a 45-minute limit.

The new car, a 1932 model, is now ready to be put in service. It will be one of the 14 patrol cars receiving sets in as many county police cars. They will complete the equipping of all police cars with radio. There are 21 cars and seven now carry the sets.

County commissioners Wednesday declined to allow Sheriff James I. Lowry to fill a vacancy on his staff created by the death of the late W. T. Mooney. In declining the request it was said that an agreement had been reached whereby 10 bailiffs were allowed to carry on the patrol after being dropped, that no more vacancies in the sheriff's office would be filled.

Public hearing on payment of rewards offered by the county for the capture and conviction of person or persons responsible for the murder of Mrs. Sam H. Anderson and Hump McGehee will be held by the county board of commissioners at 2:30 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon. The county offered $250 in each case to match similar rewards offered by the state. Two men have been convicted and are under death sentence.

Solicitor-General John A. Boykin Wednesday appeared before the county board of commissioners and asked that an audit be made of the affairs of E. N. Claghton, president of a defunct loan company on Pryor street, who is under indictment for embezzlement and two bills charging larceny after trust. The board took the matter under advisement.

County commissioners declined Wednesday to give rewards for the capture of liquor cars. At the same time they instructed the county attorney to probe the legality of a legislative action making it mandatory for the county to pay $3 to the city police pension fund for every case bound over to the state courts from recorder's court.

Ed Venable, widely known Atlanta restaurant proprietor, is seriously ill at his home at 1148 Gordon street. He has been confined to his home for the last two weeks and Wednesday was reported to have passed an uncomfortable day.

A white gold wrist watch belonging to Mrs. Stauffer was stolen from the residence of Rev. Clarence R. Stauffer, pastor of the First Christian church, Wednesday night by thieves who broke in through a front window and ransacked the house.

Councilman Aubrey Milam, of the eighth ward, will be host at a dinner tonight at Aunt Minnie's tea room, on Central avenue, to all members of council in the hope of bringing about a reconciliation of differences among the 30 members of the city's governing body.

MOB RUMORS DRAW ALA. COURT WARNING

Judge in Scottsboro Trial Pledges Protection to Accused Negro.

DECATUR, Ala., April 5.—(AP)—Rumors of possible mob action, for which officers said they found no basis, today led Judge James E. Horton, presiding over retrial of the "Scottsboro attack cases," to issue a stern warning against violent attempts.

He said national guardsmen would be ordered to shoot to kill should a mob form and threaten Heywood Patterson, the first of nine negroes involved in the case to be tried again, or his co-defendants.

The warning was followed by receipt of a telegram from New York, signed by the secretary of the International Labor Defense, protesting the "attempted lynching" of the negroes, and Samuel S. Leibowitz, chief of defense counsel. The telegram was received by Thomas E. Knight Jr., attorney-general.

Rumors were afloat in the courtroom for more than an hour before Judge Horton's address was delivered that a mob had attempted to form or would form later.

In strained silence the spectators listened this forenoon as Judge Horton raised his normally soft voice to a pitch that carried throughout the courtroom to warn "you've got to kill these guards before you'll get the prisoners."

This was the only interruption in the rapid progress of the defense in seeking to establish the innocence of Patterson, who is one of nine negroes indicted for an alleged attack on Mrs. Victoria Price and Miss Ruby Bates, of Huntsville, Ala., aboard a Southern railway freight train traversing Jackson county.

Patterson took the stand today to repeatedly deny attacking Mrs. Price, for which he is on trial, and to declare that he had never even seen any white girls on the train.

Tariff Treaty Bill Is Near Completion

WASHINGTON, April 5.—(AP)—The bill upon which President Roosevelt will depend for broad powers to negotiate reciprocal treaties virtually was completed Tuesday.

The president has informed congress that he intends soon to seek its enactment in order to go ahead with the negotiations of reciprocal tariff treaties without the necessity of having each one ratified later by the senate.

After attending a cabinet meeting today, Secretary Hull called in his two principal economic aides, Assistant Secretary Raymond Moley and Dr. Herbert Feis, to go into plans for the part the United States will play in the forthcoming world monetary and economic conference and the preliminary arrangements for it.

In these conferences the bill, which is expected to provide authority for the president to reduce tariff rates on a give-and-take basis, was thoroughly studied and revised.

While its details are guarded carefully, there were indications that it will be introduced on Capitol Hill shortly along with a message from President Roosevelt.

Operatic Program Launches Drive Of Music Club

Atlanta Music Club heralded its annual membership drive with an outstanding operatic program Wednesday morning that upheld the artistic precedent always maintained by the club. The program, given in the Woman's Club auditorium, presented five Atlanta artists in favorite operatic selections.

The program was arranged by Mrs. Thad Morrison, chairman of morning musicales. Mrs. Howard Claude Smith Jr. is president of the club.

Norman Royal, baritone, opened the program with three arias, one from "Griselda," Hummel, on "Don Giovanni," by the same composer, and one from Mozart's "Don Giovanni," all done with a style that was outstanding in musicianship and authority.

coupling to advantage with his fine vocal tone quality. Later in the program he sang "Dormio sol nel Mio Reale," from Verdi's "Don Carlos."

Mrs. Luther Harper, contralto, gave a richly beautiful interpretation of "L'Amour Vieux Aider," from Saint-Saens' "Samson et Delilah," investing it with emotional beauty and depth of feeling. Her other number was "Connaissu le Pays," from "Mignon."

Miss Ardis Colby, pianist, gave two solos of operatic transcriptions, "Melody," Gluck-Sambal, and "Paganini's Chorus," Wagner-Liszt. Her performance was marked by pianism of a fine order and lovely tone.

John Panter, tenor, moved the audience to enthusiasm with a brilliant rendition of Meyerbeer's "O Paradiso," from "L'Africaine." His lyric tenor was heard to excellent advantage in this number.

Artistic and adequate accompaniments were given by the singers by Mesdames Charles Chalmers, Victor Clarke and Thad Morrison.

Woman's Missionary Society of Decatur First Methodist church met Monday at the church, and an interesting feature was that part of the program in charge of the young girls' circle, of which Miss Elizabeth Johnson is leader. Miss Elizabeth Johnson gave an inspiring talk on "Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself," and apropos the Indian mission study book in the circles, the young people presented a playlet, "The Legend of the Cherokee Rose." To introduce the Indian atmosphere, Miss Mary Brooks Folger presented a piano solo, "The Indian Snake Dance." Historically, the playlet is most interesting, since the Cherokee rose is the state flower, and the Cherokees were the Indians living in Georgia when the white man first settled the state. Taking part were Misses Elizabeth Johnson, Bernice Wright, Elizabeth Paschall, Sarah Austin and Dorothy Thompson. Miss Elizabeth Johnson played the piano during the rendition of the play, and curios and handicraft of Indians brought from the Indian reservations were on display.

Folly Island :-: By Wallace Irwin

It's very silly of you. And what do you expect to do? Yes, he's here now. Wait a minute.

He saw Mrs. Lind come to the center of her drawing room and stand in the midst of the rubbish which the decorators had left behind. Her little body seemed to be shaking to pieces, her fingers were plucking aimlessly at her rolled-back sleeves.

"Anything wrong?" he asked, coming out of the pantry.

"Bart," she said feebly, "Lora's holding the wire. She wants to speak to you."

Then she sat heavily on a packing case.

That morning, replete with breakfast, Lora stood in the shallow foyer of the Ritz, fustily straightening Lory Warren's gaudy new tie.

"Now, Dish Face," she said amiably, "it's time for you to scam back to Wyattville and report to Momma."

"You've got a momma, too," he reminded her; this morning he seemed to be a much reduced Lory Warren.

"Maybe we've made enough trouble for 24 hours and we'd both better go home."

"I'm telling you this time," she insisted, and the red line of her lips was suddenly firm. "You hope right into that murder car of yours and start rapidly east."

"But when'll you be out?"

"After a while. I've got things to do. If I told you you'd get a sick headache, I'll be seeing you, Oude!"

Her bracelets were clanging as Lory took his obedient way into Madison avenue.

But standing there, considering, she was no longer the comic Lora Wyattville's rough little satirist. In spite of the rouge, her face looked pale, and her hand was unsteady as she lit a cigarette.

I won't spoil my day with a lot of brainstorms, she was thinking. If he never knows, that's all right by me. It isn't what he thinks of me. It's what I can give him; what he really, truly has—

As close to life philosophy as Lora, in her restless fluttering along light thrills, ever allowed herself to go. Now she was out on the street, ordering a taxi, impressing the man with the number of a studio building where Elsie Pritchard lived a puzled life, pretending to paint.

Always generous with her friends' possessions, Lora had lent Elsie Pritchard's apartment to the Bayleys when they came in to town. Alice and her mother had looked so unhappy during the minute she had talked with them. Foolish for people to let themselves get that way, she thought, riding uptown. . . . Then she remembered her own pain, which had defeated her for a little while, until she had thrown it off with a scattered volley of wisecracks.

At the entrance of the apartment house she paused vaguely, afraid that the pain would come back again and spoil it all. Then she said: "I'm

Aunt Het

"I do hope Ella gets to heaven. She'd be worried sick if she could always smell something burnt."
